Dear Microsoft Settlement:

The lawsuit against Microsoft was a stupid waste of our tax dollars. And it harmed investors in the high-tech industry, without giving us any benefit in return. It is time for this trial, and the wasteful spending, to be ended. Consumers need to see competition in the marketplace, rather than in the courtroom.

Competition creates better goods and services for the consumers, and MicrosSoft has done a great job of giving us what we want and need, at ever better prices. Let's get our government out of the business of stifling progress and tying the hands of corporations.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Jenkins
